Buying Goods and Services – Basic Good Practice for fair winds

Cam Lear

In this session, we will speak to basic good practice actions when buying goods and services for your school. This includes checking for and managing conflicts of interest, investigating how All of Government (AoG) contracts could meet your requirements and deliver the best overall value, creating and maintaining a contract register for a clear view of your contracts, and more.